Last Supper

Jesus gave us a simple and memorable way to remember him and his work on the cross. You will need appropriate communion elements.

Jesus asked two of his disciples to prepare a traditional Passover meal. At this meal, the Hebrews remembered the way God had saved them from the Egyptians. They used simple foods and traditions to recall God's salvation.

Jesus took this Passover meal, by taking the bread and the wine, and turned it into a new way to remember what Jesus has done for us.

(Luke 22:14-19)

Have a simple communion in small groups.

- This could be led by a family member or by the pastor.
- Alternatively, the whole group could do this together at the end.

Taste the Passover meal and bitter cup

The last meal Jesus had with those closest to him was the Passover, a traditional meal the people of God ate every year at this time to remember God saving them. Jesus changes the meal by telling them He has come to save them. By giving up his body (symbolized by the bread) and his blood (symbolized by the grape juice) he was going to be like the lamb that was sacrificed at Passover (symbolized by the lamb meat). The bitter herbs remind them of the suffering Jesus was about to go through. (Luke 22: 7-23)

Jesus then takes his disciples with Him to a garden to pray. He agonizes talking to God saying – ‘take this cup from me. Yet not my will but yours be done’. Jesus knew what was ahead. (Luke 22:39-44)

When Jesus is nailed to the cross soldiers offer him vinegar on a sponge to help ease his pain. He doesn’t take it. (Luke 23:36-37)

ACTION

Taste the meal and thank Jesus for what he has done. Taste the vinegar and thank Jesus for the bitter cup of suffering he gladly endured to save us all.
